How do I Sign Up?

1. Talk to Your Health Care Provider, If You Have One

If you're currently eligible to get the COVID-19 vaccine and you have health insurance, talk to your provider first about how you should get your shot. If you don’t have health insurance but get medical care through a city/county-run provider, you can check with that location.
2. Check Your County's Information

If you're eligible but getting the vaccine through your current provider isn't an option — or if you don't have health insurance or a regular health care provider — check with your county to see if they have recommendations on where to obtain your COVID-19 vaccine, or suggest specific locations (find your county in our list.) These vaccination appointments will be based on the doses that the state has supplied your county with.

3. Use My Turn

My Turn is the state’s tool that allows Californians to see instantly if they’re currently eligible for the vaccine, sign up for notifications about eligibility and future appointment scheduling, and to schedule vaccination appointments as supplies allow.

My Turn will assess your eligibility based on the county you live in, and which groups that county is vaccinating right now. If you’re eligible, the site will show you available appointments within 50 miles of the location you provide.

My Turn is now available in the following eight languages, which you can select in the first drop-down menu: English, Spanish, Tagalog, Vietnamese, traditional Chinese, simplified Chinese, Korean and Arabic.

[You can also] call the California COVID-19 Hotline at 1-833-422-4255 (Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-8 p.m., Saturday and Sunday 8 a.m.-5 p.m PT) and sign up over the phone. Both English-speaking and Spanish-speaking operators are available. Callers needing information in other languages will be connected to a translation service that offers 254 other languages.

4. Call Your Local Pharmacy

Call your local pharmacy to see if they're offering the COVID-19 vaccine and to whom. Several pharmacies are also offering online appointments, although please note that low vaccine supply means that available appointments are looking scarce right now.
- CVS COVID-19 Vaccine Appointments
- Rite Aid COVID-19 Vaccine Appointments
- Walgreens COVID-19 Vaccine Appointments (or call 1-800-WALGREENS, 1-800-925-4733)

The volunteer-run site VaccinateCA shows pharmacies near you that are offering vaccinations. You can also see these pharmacies using VaccineFinder, a tool run by Boston Children’s Hospital in partnership with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
