

Our lawsuit to save asylum: EBSC v. Biden

Just as we sued Trump, we're now fighting in federal court alongside the ACLU to block the Biden administration's illegal and inhumane asylum ban.

The law is on our side, but the ban remains in effect while our case makes its way through the courts – so we're counting on your support to see this through.

“The USA has been my home for 30 years. If I received permanent residency, I would no longer be so worried about being forced to leave my family.”

– Mariano

In 2023, your support helped us serve 13,800 people:

- Classes for 320+ aspiring citizens
- Health info & access for 6,650
- 1x1 case management for 300+, including 38 unaccompanied minors
- $15,780 in crisis aid for 32 families
- Wraparound support for 250 people forced to flee Afghanistan

Help fuel our work in 2024!

Your 2023 Impact Report

All year long, your support for EBSC has fueled

- Our response to unjust laws
- Our ongoing bedrock support for migrants
- Creative new ways to reach those who need us most.

“EBSC changed my vision of immigration legal support! Leaving your country is a necessary and tough decision. EBSC has helped me thrive in a new life in the US.”

– Andres

Always at their side: Our holistic approach

From the moment they step through our door, we walk with migrants toward citizenship and their new lives.

Beyond legal status, we guide families to public benefits, health care, and other essential services so they can thrive in the U.S.

▶ We have a 98% success rate helping 6,500 people apply for asylum since our start.

“Thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping me with my asylum ten years ago and with my application for a green card. I became a citizen in July!”

– Ernesto Sanchez

Amplifying their voices: Growing our grassroots

We train undocumented immigrants to raise their voices for their families, fueling the fight for just policies for all.

Through social justice arts, workshops, marches, and legislative visits, we give people a platform to tell their story – building empathy, action, and power.

Building safe spaces: Community pride

“When we arrived in the U.S. we didn’t know the laws or even where to begin to look for help. Now, we can help people know their rights and the resources available to them.”

– EBSC Mayan Voices Team

▶ Over 54,000 listeners hear how to access services through our weekly Radio B’alam program in Spanish and Mam.

▶ Our team won a prestigious California Ethnic Media Award for their impact on the Mam community.
